Give the date of:

First monolingual English dictionary
Johnson's Dictionary appears
The Habeas Corpus Act
The English Bill of Rights
The Julian Calendar
The English adoption of the Gregorian Calendar

Briefly identify or define the following:

Inkhorn words
Vernacular
Thematic organization
Muckrakers
Yellow journalism
James Gordon Bennett
James Murray
Journal
William Petty
Henry Oldenberg
Su Sung
Charles Lyell
Luca Pacioli
Daniel Defoe
Saint Monday
Epigraphic writing
Double entry

Arrange in chronological order of first appearance:

Wikipedia, Encyclopedia Britannica, Oxford English Dictionary, Noah Webster's dictionary

Short Answer:

What was the first English daily newspaper; give the year it was first published

Name & describe three features that contribute to the notion of journalistic objectivity.
What was the first English scientific journal; give the year it was first published

What was the significance of Johnson's inclusion of all the simple words of English?

Name two technological developments that were important to the development of the 19th-century press.

Name two social changes that have been offered as explanations for the development of the 19th-century press.

Why did the emergence of the press services contribute to the growth of journalistic objectivity?

What 3 events did Habermas identify as particularly significant to the rise of the public sphere; when did they occur?

Why were Mocha and Java of interest to the English of the seventeenth century?

How did John Graunt's tables differ from Francis Bacon's?

Name three early members of the Royal Society and briefly outline their achievements?

Explain how the date of the Christian feast of Easter is set. Why is it significant to a history of time?

Why did Sombart think double-entry bookkeeping was important in the history of capitalism?