Dates:
- Marconi’s first radio transmission
- First station to schedule regular radio broadcasts
  o Date, City, Call letters
- Debut of “Amos n’ Andy”
- Beginning of regular TV broadcasts in the US
- Year when 50% of American homes have TVs
- Corporation for Public Broadcasting established
- First station adopts all-talk format
- “Fairness doctrine” repealed
- The first Britain-North America telegraph line
- The first newspaper advertisement in England
- Publication of the “Fable of the Bees”
- The first patent leading to the typewriter

Identify or define, explaining relevance to the course where necessary:
- Clear channel stations
- CATV
- William Howard Russell
- Matthew Brady
- Creel Committee
- Leni Riefenstahl
- Father Coughlin
- Rowland Hill
- The Strowger switch
- LEO
- Hallamshire
- The Pyes of Salisbury

Answer briefly:
- What is the basic difference between the way radio was originally organized and funded in the UK and the US?
- In what way was the mid-19th century development of the American postal service the opposite of the early 20th-century development of the radio?
- What was the difference between the telegraph systems of Chappe, Morse, and Cooke?
- What are “potteries” and why were they significant?
- What was the major shift described by Yates in the direction of business communication in the 19th century? What brought it about?
- How did Swift transform the 19th-century meat markets?
- Why might one say that the term “infoganda” is redundant?
- How does the early development of radio programming mirror the early development of photography?